

Idaho Treatment Court Rule 12

Idaho Treatment Court Rule 12. Disqualification of Treatment Court Judge

(a) Participants in a Treatment Court do not have a right to disqualify the Treatment Court Judge, an assigned Treatment Court Judge, or any other judge assigned to temporarily preside over the Treatment Court.

(b) Notwithstanding Idaho Criminal Rule 25, any prior disqualification of a Judge shall not operate as a disqualification of that judge as the Treatment Court Judge or as the judge assigned to temporarily preside over a Treatment Court.

(c) The State or the participant may move to disqualify a Judge assigned to termination or disposition proceedings only as provided in Idaho Criminal Rule 25(b).

(Adopted April 29, 2022, effective July 1, 2022.)
