IRFLP 115 Conduct of Proceedings

Idaho Rules of Family Law Procedure Rule 115. Conduct of Proceedings.

(a) Conduct of Proceedings. The court may impose reasonable time limits on all proceedings or portions thereof and limit the time to the scheduled time. Any party may request additional time by filing a motion within a reasonable time or as directed by the court.

(b) Proceedings Conducted in Orderly Manner. All proceedings must be conducted in an orderly, courteous, and dignified manner. Arguments and remarks will be addressed to the court.

(c) Time Limits on Arguments on Motions. Unless a different time is allowed by the presiding judge or a different time is fixed by other controlling rule, arguments on contested motions will be limited to 15 minutes for each side.

(d) Time Limits on Evidentiary Hearings and Civil Protection Order Actions. Unless a different time is allowed by the presiding judge or a different time is fixed by another controlling rule, the presentation of evidence for evidentiary hearings in family law actions or civil protection order actions will be limited to 30 minutes for each side. This section does not apply to family law action trials.

(Adopted March 29, 2021, effective July 1, 2021.)
