

In the Supreme Court of the State of Idaho

RE: APPELLATE ORAL) ARGUMENTS)
_____)

ORDER

On November 16, 2020, this Court issued an Order regarding appellate oral arguments, which applied retroactively to April 1, 2020. Due to the state and national emergency declarations issued in March of 2020 related to the Coronavirus pandemic, the Court directed that all appellate arguments before the Court be held remotely and live streamed for public viewing until further order of the Court, and temporarily suspended travel to hear cases across the state. Idaho Const., art. V, § 8 (“In case of epidemic, pestilence, ... the justices may hold the terms of the Supreme Court provided by this section at other convenient places, ...”).

Since the issuance of the Order, vaccines reducing the risks of COVID-19 have become available throughout the state of Idaho. Effective immediately, and as long as health and safety considerations warrant, the Supreme Court will resume in-person oral arguments at the Supreme Court, and in other locations where the Supreme Court may travel within the State of Idaho.

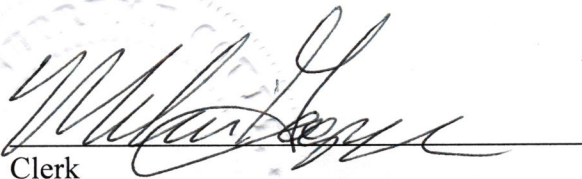

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED August 5th, 2021.

G. Richard Bevan
Chief Justice, Idaho Supreme Court
