

2022 Virtual Statewide Idaho Treatment Court Conference

May 5 and 6, 2022

Strong Teams Can Better Support Participants and Serve Our Communities

Zoom Webinar Link for Attendees:

<https://idcourts.zoom.us/j/93825170729?pwd=ZkRacEVnSFRCT2NMRVRHdDJOcGNLQT09>

Conference ~ At a Glance ~

Day 1- May 5 th , 2022	Day 2- May 6 th , 2022
Roles of Team Members Probation is from Mars and Treatment is from Venus Conflict Prevention and Management in Treatment Courts Program Termination	Emotional Intelligence Tall Cop Says Stop Trauma Integrated Treatment Using Carrots to Make it Stick! Delivering Incentives and Sanctions in the Court Room for Lasting Change

FULL CONFERENCE AGENDA

May 5th, 2022

Day 1

8:45 – 9:00am	Welcome and Opening Remarks: Justice Gregory W. Moeller  Introduction of Speakers: Scott Ronan, Court Programs & Services Administrator, Senior (State Treatment Court Coordinator)
9:00-10:30am	Roles of Team Members Speaker: Judge Mary Jane Knisely  Treatment Courts are a multi-disciplinary approach that requires key stakeholders in communities to understand what role they serve on a team while still maintaining their ethical responsibilities.
10:30-10:45am	Break
10:45–12:15pm	Probation is from Mars and Treatment is from Venus Speaker: Paul Meigio and Ryan Porter

This seminar discusses the challenges and conflicts involved when two entities have the same outcome but different means in dealing with mutual clientele. Each co-facilitator will explain the vernacular, philosophy and intentions of achieving successful results. Collaboration will be discussed, as well as the benefit of understanding the philosophies of all involved.

12:15 – 12:45 pm

Lunch

12:45 - 1:00pm

Justice Moeller, Presentation of the Daniel T. Eismann Award for Excellence in Treatment Courts

1:00 - 1:15pm

Honoring Our Friend and Colleague: Rich Neu

1:15 – 2:45pm

Conflict Prevention & Management in Treatment Courts
Speakers: Alex Casale and Heather Kulp

Treatment courts bring together a diverse staff comprised of team members from various professional backgrounds. Differences in opinion within such teams are inevitable and productive. Effective courts seek to prevent harmful conflict and can manage differences to avoid negative impacts on participants and the community.

2:45 – 3:00pm

Break

3:00 – 4:30pm

Program Termination

Speaker: Helen Harberts, M.A., J.D.

Every team has had incredibly difficult and sometimes dividing conversations about whether to terminate a participant. This session will seek to provide examples and solutions.

4:30pm

Adjourn for the Day

Zoom Link (same as Day 1):

<https://idcourts.zoom.us/j/93825170729?pwd=ZkRacEVnSFRCT2NMRVRHdDJOcGNLQT09>

May 6th, 2022

Day 2

9:00 – 9:05am

Housekeeping and Evaluations: Scott Ronan

9:05 – 10:35am	Emotional Intelligence  Speaker: Laura Guillian, Ph.D. Candidate, Business, Benedictine University
	As virtual work environments become a permanent component of treatment courts, emotional intelligence (EI) and a sense of belonging will be more important than ever to cultivate. Learning and putting into daily practice the EI skills required to interpret behaviors and emotions and respond accordingly is incredibly challenging in a virtual and hybrid environment. Team members will be challenged to expand those skills and practices to be more self-aware, better at self-management, more socially aware and effective at relationship management.
10:35 – 10:45am	Break
10:45am-12:15pm	Tall Cop Says Stop!  Speaker: Jermaine Galloway
	Hide in Plain Sight- drug trends, concealment, and more!
12:15-1:15pm	Lunch
1:15-2:45pm	Trauma Integrated Treatment  Speaker: Sonia Fry, Clinical Director at Preferred Child and Family Services
	Treatment Courts have long understood that trauma awareness and trauma integrated approaches are required to be effective with participants. While being aware has been a chief focus, the field needs to implement an integrated approach and allow trauma integrated treatment to become real world practice. This presentation will highlight Accelerated Resolution Therapy (ART).
2:45-3:45pm	Using Carrots to Make it Stick!  Delivering Incentives and Sanctions in the Court Room for Lasting Change  Speaker: Shannon Carey
	The science of behavior change is complex, and knowing how and when to use sanctions, incentives and therapeutic responses effectively can be challenging. This session focuses on court including the skill steps for effective delivery of incentives, sanctions, and therapeutic responses in the court room, developing rapport, adjusting to co-occurring disorders and trauma, fairness, and capitalizing on hope.
3:45-3:50pm	Conference Wrap Up, Evaluation, and Adjournment: Scott Ronan