IN RE: MEMBERSHIP OF THE JUVENILE JUSTICE ADVISORY COMMITTEE

)
)

ORDER

A multidisciplinary Juvenile Justice Advisory Committee, to advance Idaho's balanced approach to the juvenile justice system, will accomplish the following:

1. Build collaboration with juvenile justice stakeholders;
2. Research and study the operation of Idaho's juvenile justice system to recommend improved practices and outcomes for juveniles and their families;
3. Recommend the implementation of evidence-based practices to accomplish the goals of the Juvenile Corrections Act (JCA);
4. Recommend changes to rules or statutes to improve the operation of the juvenile justice system;
5. Assist with implementation of recommended juvenile case flow management plans;
6. Collaborate with the Supreme Court Treatment Court Committee to recommend effective practices in Idaho's juvenile drug and mental health courts;
7. Collaborate with the Supreme Court Child Protection Committee to recommend policies and practices aimed at improving outcomes for dually adjudicated (crossover) youth;
8. Develop, recommend, and maintain statewide juvenile justice forms; and
9. Recommend the implementation of data sharing among system stakeholders.

A request for adjustments to the Committee membership having been made, the Court makes changes to the Juvenile Justice Advisory Committee:

Committee members who, upon retirement, are released from the duties associated with the Committee, with our appreciation for their service, are:

Judge Mark Ingram - Fifth District Magistrate
Judge Bryan K. Murray - Sixth District Magistrate

The following individuals are appointed to Juvenile Justice Advisory Committee:

Judge Jeremy Pittard - Fifth District Magistrate
Judge Anson Call - Sixth District Magistrate

Judge Victoria Olds shall be appointed as Chairperson of the Juvenile Justice Advisory Committee.

After the above adjustments are made to the roster, the Juvenile Justice Advisory Committee shall be comprised of the following members serving for the following terms:
