IN RE: MEMBERSHIP OF THE JUVENILE ) JUSTICE ADVISORY COMMITTEE )
_____ )

ORDER

A multidisciplinary Juvenile Justice Advisory Committee, to advance Idaho's balanced approach to the juvenile justice system, will accomplish the following:

1. Build collaboration with juvenile justice stakeholders;
2. Research and study the operation of Idaho's juvenile justice system to improve practices and outcomes for juveniles and their families;
3. Promote the implementation of evidence-based practices to accomplish the goals of the Juvenile Corrections Act (JCA);
4. Recommend changes to rules or statutes to improve the operation of the juvenile justice system;
5. Assist with implementation of juvenile case flow management plans;
6. Collaborate with the Supreme Court Treatment Court Committee to promote effective practices in Idaho's juvenile drug and mental health courts;
7. Collaborate with the Supreme Court Child Protection Committee to promote policies and practices aimed at improving outcomes for dually adjudicated (crossover) youth;
8. Develop, recommend, and maintain statewide juvenile justice forms; and
9. Promote the implementation of data sharing among system stakeholders.

A Request for adjustments to the Committee membership having been made, the Court makes the following changes to the Juvenile Justice Advisory Committee:

The following individuals are reappointed to the Juvenile Justice Advisory Committee:

Judge Victoria Olds, Chair – Second District Magistrate
Judge Dayo Onanubosi – Third District Magistrate
