

ETHICS REVIEW & WRITTEN EXAM PREP- CLASS

BOISE AND POCATELLO

COURSE DESCRIPTION

One day, in person class divided into two tracks. Track one covers the interpreter role in the legal setting, ethics and professional conduct, as well as how to develop their professional judgement. Participants will be involved in highly interactive discussions and activities created to teach new interpreters how to apply the Idaho Court of Professional Responsibilities for Interpreters in the Judiciary, federal and state law and Supreme Court rules and orders.

Track two, addresses exam preparation. This section includes exercises, activities and mock-exams developed to prepare candidates for the Written English Proficiency Exam. Track two is further developed during the 60-minute, Written Exam Pre-Webinar.
