

2021 Idaho Court Interpreter Training & Certification Program

Idaho Court Administrative Rule 52 mandates a priority of appointment the courts and their designees must follow when appointing interpreters to cover cases. The same states that certified interpreters should be used unless there is good cause to deviate.

The Administrative Office of the Court has access to certification exams only in 16 languages. Interpreters who work in languages other than the ones listed below, must pursue a path to become Registered Court Interpreters.

Arabic	Korean	Spanish
Bosnian/Serbian/Croatian	Laotian	Tagalog
Cantonese	Mandarin	Turkish
Creole	Polish	Vietnamese
Hmong	Portuguese
Ilocano	Russian

To increase the number of trained interpreters, the Language Access Office has created a combination of in-person and online trainings. In-person trainings are offered in different locations across the state. Additionally, training and testing cycles are available yearly. Course description and registration forms are available online.

Certified Interpreters

Currently, the Idaho Administrative Office of the Court offers certification for 16 different languages (see previous page). All other languages are covered by the Registered status (see page 3).

Individuals interested in becoming certified as court interpreters must successfully complete the steps listed below. Up to two training cycles are available during the year.

Step 1: Intro to Court Interpretation (Mandatory)
Ongoing	Online. Self-paced course designed to provide an orientation to the court interpreting profession. Language neutral. Mandatory.

Step 2: Ethics Review & Written Exam Prep-Class (Mandatory)
March or April	One day, in person class. Enhance understanding of professional conduct and ethics. Test-taking strategies and exam preparation. Language neutral.

Step 3: Written English Proficiency Exam (Mandatory)
May and/or November	Multiple-choice questions on general language proficiency, court-related terms, ethics and professional conduct. Constructed to measure entry-level knowledge of English that a competent person working in the court would need. Passing score of 80 percent is required.

Step 4: Skill-Building Workshop (Optional)
May	One day in person workshop designed to provide participants with experienced faculty and intensive practice in the three modes of interpreting, in preparation for the oral certification exam. Language neutral workshop. All certification candidates are strongly encouraged to participate.

Step 5: Advanced Skill Building Workshop (Optional)
August	Two day in person Spanish-specific workshop designed to provide participants one-on-one time with experienced faculty and intensive practice in the three modes of interpreting, in preparation for the oral certification exam. Highly interactive course that provides individualized feedback to the interpreter-candidate through the use of exercises and mock exams. All interpreter-candidates are strongly encouraged to participate to be better prepared for the oral exam.

Step 6: Oral Certification Exam (Mandatory)
April & October	Oral exam on simultaneous interpreting, consecutive interpreting, and sight translation. A candidate must receive a score of 70 percent or higher on all three sections to pass the exam. A passing score on the sight translation section of the exam is a minimum of 65 percent on each part of the sight translations, with an average of 70 percent overall.

Registered Court Interpreters

The registered category and process is only available to those individuals who speak a language for which no certification exam exists. Individuals interested in becoming registered as court interpreters by the Idaho Administrative Office of the Courts must successfully complete the steps listed below. Up to two training cycles are available during the year.

Step 1: Intro to Court Interpretation (Mandatory)
Ongoing	Online. Self-paced course designed to provide an orientation to the court interpreting profession. Language neutral.
Step 2: Ethics Review & Written Exam Prep-Class (Mandatory)
March or April	One day, in person class. Enhance understanding of professional conduct and ethics. Test-taking strategies and exam preparation. Language neutral.
Step 3: Written English Proficiency Exam (Mandatory)
May and/or November	Multiple-choice questions on general language proficiency, court-related terms, ethics and professional conduct. Constructed to measure entry-level knowledge of English that a competent person working in the court would need. Passing score of 80 percent is required.
Step 4: Skill-Building Workshop (Optional)
Summer	One-day in person workshop designed to provide participants one-on-one time with experienced faculty and intensive practice in the three modes of interpreting, in preparation for the foreign language assesment. Language neutral workshop. This is an optional workshop. However, all candidates are strongly encouraged to attend.
Step 5: Foreign Language Proficiency Assessment (Mandatory)
TBD	Oral exam measuring foreign language speaking and comprehension skills. The AOC will seek to administer the Oral Proficiency Interview (OPI) from language testing agencies. Examples of said companies may include Language Testing International, ALTA Language Services, Inc. or Versant.
