

Presented by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and The National Judicial College

THE NUMBERS GAME

Financial Statements in the Courtroom

October 25-26, 2012
Savannah, GA

NO COST FOR JUDGES TO ATTEND!

Limited availability. Reserve your space today.

Financial Statements in the Courtroom is an excellent opportunity for judges to explore financial litigation issues while gaining the skills and knowledge that will lead to more educated decisions relating to complex financial statements.

PROGRAM FORMAT

Financial Statements in the Courtroom is an intensive two-day course offered solely to members of the judiciary. This interactive course uses industry experts and role-play to examine current topics relevant to understanding complex financial statements.

Each session will focus on key concepts, tools and techniques needed for making informed legal decisions. Case studies and problem-solving exercises will help you refine decision-making skills and expand your knowledge of financial statements.

HOW TO REGISTER

Participants must meet certain prerequisites to attend. Enrollment is on a first-come, first-serve basis, and is not guaranteed until notification is sent by the NJC Registrar's Office. Travel and lodging arrangements are made by the NJC ONLY. A confirmation packet containing detailed information on the course, plus travel and lodging preferences, will be sent to participants upon acceptance into the course.

"I am pleasantly surprised as to how much I learned so quickly."

— Recent Financial Statements in the Courtroom attendee

NO COST FOR JUDGES TO ATTEND

There is no cost to you or your state to attend this course. Through a generous grant from the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, The National Judicial College is able to present this special two-day course in your area.

- ✓ PAID TUITION
- ✓ PAID TRAVEL
- ✓ PAID LODGING
- ✓ PAID MEALS

Est. 1963

THE NATIONAL
JUDICIAL COLLEGE