

SUMMARY STATEMENT

Van v. Portneuf Medical Center, Inc., Docket No. 38793

The Idaho Supreme Court upheld an adverse jury verdict against Mark Van on his claim against Portneuf Medical Center for an alleged violation of the Idaho Protection of Public Employees Act (the Whistleblower Act). The jury determined that Van engaged in activity protected by the Whistleblower Act but that the termination of his employment did not result from the protected activity.