PER CURIAM

Lisa Renee Hensdell appeals from the district court’s restitution order, entered pursuant to Idaho Code § 19-5304. On appeal, Hensdell contends the district court abused its discretion by issuing the restitution order without finding that the year-long delay in entering the order, from the time of the judgment of conviction, was necessary for the processing of the request for restitution. See State v. Jensen, 149 Idaho 758, 763, 241 P.3d 1, 6 (Ct. App. 2010). Her claim of error will not be reviewed because she did not preserve it by objecting below. The fundamental error doctrine may not be invoked to raise a restitution issue for the first time on appeal because restitution proceedings are civil in nature. State v. Mosqueda, 150 Idaho 830, 834, 252 P.3d 563, 567 (Ct. App. 2010). Accordingly, the order awarding restitution is affirmed.
