

SUMMARY STATEMENT

Mattox v. Life Care of Lewiston, Docket No. 40762

The Supreme Court vacated summary judgment in favor of Life Care of Lewiston in this medical malpractice case, holding that the district court erroneously concluded that the plaintiff's two expert witnesses, a Lewiston doctor and a Lewiston nurse, were not qualified to testify as to the standard of care for a skilled nursing home such as Life Care of Lewiston. The case was remanded to district court for further proceedings.
