

SUMMARY STATEMENT

Turner v. City of Lapwai, Docket No. 41560

The Supreme Court affirmed the Nez Perce County district court's dismissal of Mercedes Turner's suit against the City of Lapwai. Turner, a former city clerk, claims she was owed additional compensation by the City but the district court held her suit was barred for failure to provide adequate notice of her claims under Idaho Code sections 50-219 and 6-906. The Supreme Court held that a notice of claim against a city must be filed with the city clerk, which Turner had failed to do.
