

SUMMARY STATEMENT

Holdaway v. Broulim's Supermarket, Docket No. 41615

The Supreme Court affirmed the dismissal on summary judgment of Gary Holdaway's Madison County personal injury suit against Broulim's Supermarket. Holdaway alleged that an automatic door at Broulim's closed on his leg, causing injury. The district court ruled that Holdaway had failed to present admissible evidence that the door had caused his injury, a conclusion that was upheld on appeal.
