

SUMMARY STATEMENT

In the Matter of the Termination of the Parental Rights of John Doe (2013-29), Docket No. 41688

In an appeal from Bannock County, the Idaho Supreme Court affirmed the magistrate court's order terminating John Doe's parental rights to his daughter, T.C. The Supreme Court held that substantial and competent evidence supported the magistrate court's conclusion that Doe neglected T.C. and that termination of Doe's parental rights was in T.C.'s best interests.
