

SUMMARY STATEMENT

Firmage v. Snow, Docket No. 42141

This child custody modification case arose in Ada County. The parties stipulated that the recommendations of a designated evaluator would provide the basis for the custody order. After the evaluator made his recommendations, the appellant father objected to the magistrate court's order, which followed the evaluator's recommendations. Based on the magistrate court's findings that the recommendations were sound and in the best interests of the children, the Supreme Court affirmed the custody modification order.
