

SUMMARY STATEMENT

Poledna v. Idaho Department of Labor/Thorne Research, Docket No. 42220

The Idaho Supreme Court affirmed the order of the Industrial Commission. This is an appeal from the Industrial Commission from an order denying appellant unemployment benefits after she quit her job because it was aggravating her bilateral carpal tunnel syndrome. We affirm the order of the Commission that the appellant had failed to prove that she quit her employment for good cause.