

SUMMARY STATEMENT

Thornton v. Pandrea, Docket No. 42332

The Supreme Court affirmed the judgment of the district court in Bonner County holding property that had been owned by Kari Clark was benefitted by an express easement over property owned by John Thornton. The Court upheld the district court's rulings that Thornton had knowingly and inappropriately interfered with Clark's use of the easement and that an award of attorneys fees against Thornton and his legal counsel were warranted.
