Medical Recovery Services, LLC v. Siler

Docket No. 44139

The Idaho Supreme Court reverses and remands the Jefferson County district court's order affirming the magistrate court's ruling denying Medical Recovery Services' application for an award of postjudgment attorney fees under Idaho Code section 12-120(5). The Court ruled that attorney fees under section 12-120(5) are mandatory. However, while fees are mandatory, the amount of those fees remains within the discretion of the court.
