

SUMMARY STATEMENT

Hull v. Geisler

Docket No. 44562

In an appeal from a decision of the Twin Falls County district court, the Supreme Court affirmed the court's decision regarding the allocation of development costs between the parties. The Supreme Court first recognized that Hull had failed to show that the district court had abused its discretion to not allow testimony from Hull's expert witness. The Court then recognized that Hull had waived the rest of his issues on appeal by failing to support them with argument and authority. The Court then awarded Geisler attorney fees on appeal under Idaho Code section 12-120(3).
