

SUMMARY STATEMENT

Kosmann v. Dinius

Docket No. 45779

The Supreme Court affirmed a Canyon County district court decision granting Dinius's motion to enforce an oral settlement agreement that was entered on the record at the conclusion of mediation. The Court held that the district court properly applied contract law principles to uphold the settlement agreement. The Court also held that the initial determination of whether an ethical violation occurred is a task properly left to the Idaho State Bar.
