PER CURIAM

Anthony George pled guilty to fraudulent possession of financial transaction card, Idaho Code § 18-3125(5). In exchange for his guilty plea, additional charges were dismissed. The district court imposed a unified term of four years with two years determinate, suspended the sentence, and placed George on probation. Subsequently, George admitted to violating the terms of the probation, and the district court consequently revoked probation and retained jurisdiction. George appeals, contending that the district court abused its discretion when it revoked his probation and should have continued or reinstated his probation. Following the filing of the appellant's brief, George has been placed back on probation for a period of four years. Because

George was placed back on probation, he has been granted relief on the only issue he has raised on appeal. Consequently, this appeal is moot and the case is hereby dismissed.
