Appeal from the District Court of the Sixth Judicial District, State of Idaho, Bear Lake County. Hon. Mitchell W. Brown, District Judge. Hon. R. Todd Garbett, Magistrate.

May, Rammell & Well, Chtd.; Bron Rammell, Pocatello, for appellant.

LTM Law Group; Quentin W. Lackey, Caldwell, for respondent.

Jared Gunn and Stephanie Gunn divorced in 2010. Pursuant to a stipulated supplemental divorce decree, Jared and Stephanie were awarded joint legal custody of their three minor children, with Stephanie receiving 65 percent of the custodial time and Jared 35 percent. Jared was also ordered to pay child support to Stephanie.

In 2016, Stephanie moved to modify the supplemental divorce decree, seeking, among other things, a reduction in Jared's custodial time with the minor children and an increase in child support. After a trial, the magistrate court found that it is in the children's best interests to reduce Jared's custodial time from 35 percent to 20 percent and to increase his child support obligation to $1200 per month. Jared appealed to the district court, challenging the reduction of his custodial time and the inclusion of some of his overtime income in his gross income for the purposes of calculating child support. The district court affirmed the magistrate court's judgment modifying child custody and support. Jared again appeals.
