

Judicial Education

Welcome to the Idaho Judicial Education Website

"No higher duty, or more solemn responsibility rests upon this Court than that of translating into living law and maintaining this constitutional shield... for the benefit of every human being subject to our Constitution— of whatever race, creed, or persuasion."

- Hugo Black

Our website offers you access to the latest advances in justice, legislative matters, legal research and related curriculum, as well as access to the people and history of the Idaho Judiciary.

Here you will find calendars for upcoming trainings and archived resources from past trainings.

The Idaho Judiciary is dedicated to providing ample opportunity to the latest resources and the on-going education of judges, clerks, and other interested court support personnel. We trust you will find these resources useful. If you have questions, suggestions, or concerns, our contact information can be found in the right column.

Source URL: <https://isc.idaho.gov/judicial-education/home>