

I.R.E. 603. Oath or Affirmation.

Published on Supreme Court (<https://isc.idaho.gov>)

I.R.E. 603. Oath or Affirmation.

Idaho Rules of Evidence Rule 603. Oath or Affirmation.

Before testifying, every witness shall be required to declare that the witness will testify truthfully, by oath or affirmation administered in a form calculated to awaken the conscience of the witness and impress upon the mind of the witness of the duty to do so.

(Adopted January 8, 1985, effective July 1, 1985.)

Source URL: <https://isc.idaho.gov/ire603>