

I.R.S.C.A. 7. Transferring Action to District Court

Idaho Rules for Small Claims Actions Rule 7. Transferring Action to District Court.

When a defendant in an action under these rules files an action in the district court or the magistrate division which arises out of the same transaction or occurrence, or is similar to a compulsory counterclaim pursuant to Rule 13(a), Idaho Rules of Civil Procedure, the judge presiding over the non-small claim action must order the small claim action transferred and consolidate the actions for trial.

(Source URL: <https://isc.idaho.gov/rule7-new>)
(Supreme Court, 2016, effective 01/29/17)