- J. Petitions for rehearing or reconsideration or orders thereon.
- K. Notice of appeal and any notice of cross-appeal.
- L. Any request for additional reporter's transcript or agency's record.
- M. Table of contents and index.

(c) Additional Documents. The clerk's or agency's record shall also include all additional documents requested by any party in the notice of appeal, notice of cross-appeal and requests for additional documents in the record. Any party may request any written document filed or lodged with the district court or agency to be included in the clerk's or agency's record including, but not limited to, written requested jury instructions, written jury instructions given by the court, depositions, briefs, statements or affidavits considered by the court or administrative agency in the trial of the action or proceeding, or considered on any motion made therein, and memorandum opinions or decisions of a court or administrative agency.

(d) Preparation of Record. The clerk shall prepare the record on paper by making clearly and distinctly legible photocopies or other reproductions of all documents included in the record. The clerk shall type or have typed any document which cannot be reproduced in a distinctly legible form.

(e) Cover of Record. The clerk's or agency's record shall be bound with a cover of 65 pound paper stock or heavier material and shall not have a plastic or acetate cover. The record shall be fastened at the top edge so as to open as flatly as possible.

(f) Arrangement and Numbering. All pleadings, documents, and papers required to be in the clerk's or agency's record shall be inserted chronologically as indicated by the date of filing. Each page of the clerk's or agency's record shall be numbered consecutively at the bottom of the page. The numbering shall include every page included in the record even if it was not a filed document, such as the title page, the table of contents, the index, and the register of actions. Each volume of the clerk's or agency's record shall contain no more than 200 pages unless the record can be completed in 250 pages.

(g) Table of Contents and Index of Record-Electronic Bookmarks.

(1) Hard Copy Record. Each volume of the clerk's or agency's record shall contain a chronological table of contents of the documents included in the entire record and shall have an alphabetical index indicating the volume and page where each pleading, document or paper may be found.

(2) Electronic Copy of Record. An electronic clerk or agency's record shall contain electronic bookmarks that link to each document in the electronic record.

(h) Certificate of Clerk. The clerk of the court or administrative agency shall certify at the end of the record, that the record contains true and correct copies of all pleadings, documents and papers designated to be included in the clerk's or agency's record by Rule 28, the notice of appeal, any notice of cross-appeal, and any designation of additional documents to be included in the clerk's or agency's record. The clerk's or agency's record shall also include the certificate required by Rule 31(d).

(i) Certificate of Service. The clerk shall certify in the record, or in the clerk's certificate, the date of service of the record and the transcript on the parties or their counsel.
