

I.A.R. 31.1 Reclaiming Exhibits, Documents or Property

Idaho Appellate Rule 31.1. Reclaiming Exhibits, Documents or Property.

At any time after the commencement of an appeal, any interested party or person may file a motion with the Supreme Court for an order permitting the reclamation by such party or person of exhibits offered or admitted in evidence, documents or property displayed or considered in connection with the action, or any property in the possession of any court, department, agency or official. The Supreme Court in its discretion may grant such an order on such conditions and under such circumstances as it deems appropriate, including but not limited to the substitution of a copy, photograph, drawing, facsimile, or other reproduction of the original exhibit, document or property, or the posting of a bond that the exhibit, document or property will be returned if either the Supreme Court or the trial court later orders that such exhibit, document or property be returned to the court for any purpose in the action or appeal.
