

IRFLP 303 Actions at Issue - Not Default

Idaho Rules of Family Law Procedure Rule 303. Actions at Issue - Not Default.

This rule shall not prevent a trial hearing on any action which is at issue in which the parties are represented in person or by their attorneys of record, which hearing shall not be deemed a default hearing whether or not a defending party actively participates or opposes the claim of another.

(Adopted April 2, 2014, effective for early adopters July 1, 2014, effective statewide July 1, 2015.)
