COVID-19 Changes to Fall 2021 Admission Ceremony

The Idaho Supreme Court's Fall 2021 Admission Ceremony for successful candidates of the Idaho State Bar will now be held in four separate sessions to support COVID-19 precautions.

The sessions on the afternoon of Friday, Sept. 24, will be streamed live by Idaho In Session on its Judiciary page. Sessions will take place at 1 p.m., 2 p.m., 3 p.m. and 4 p.m., all Mountain time.

The Admission Ceremony was already planned to be livestreamed for family, friends and the public in order to support COVID-19 protocols, including social distancing. The extent of the current surge in cases and its effect, among other things, on Idaho's health care system prompted this new adjustment and the cancellation of a joint session with Idaho's federal court.

In-person attendance at the sessions is still limited to only the new admittees to the Bar. Recordings will be provided after the event.
