Advisory: Jan. 24 Oral Argument in Pentico v. Idaho Commission for Reapportionment

At 1:30 p.m. Monday, Jan. 24, the Idaho Supreme Court will hear oral argument in Pentico v. Idaho Commission for Reapportionment, a challenge to Idaho's congressional redistricting plan. The hearing will be held at the Supreme Court courtroom in Boise.

The Jan. 24 hearing will be streamed online through Idaho In Session, available to anyone with an internet-connected phone or computer.

For those wishing to attend in person, current COVID-19 precautions in the Supreme Court building will limit seating in the courtroom. Overflow seating will be available in the Lincoln Room in the basement of the Supreme Court building.

Attendees must wear masks and practice social distancing under the Court's current health and safety order.

To view filings in the redistricting cases, visit the Judicial Branch's Cases of Interest website (coi.isc.idaho.gov).
