Learn about Pro Bono Service with Idaho's Courts, State Bar

Perhaps you are an attorney with an active practice, always looking for that energizing case.

Or perhaps you served a full legal career in another state, then retired to Idaho. How are you choosing to serve your community now?

The Idaho Volunteer Lawyers Program is looking for active and retired attorneys interested in contributing their skills to represent Idahoans who do not have the resources to hire their own representation. IVLP can connect attorneys with pre-screened clients and provide other support, including malpractice insurance for pro bono cases.

Interested attorneys across Idaho's seven judicial districts are invited to learn more about the program and how to "Practice with Purpose" over a meal at these events:

- Oct. 5: Trails End Brewery, 356 W. Bosanko Ave., Coeur d'Alene, 5:30-7 p.m.
- Oct. 6: Zany's, 2004 19th Ave., Lewiston, 5:30-7 p.m.
- Oct. 11: Canyon County Administration Building, 111 North 11th Ave., Suite 130, Caldwell, 5:30-7:30 p.m.
- Oct. 12: Idaho Supreme Court Building Lincoln Room, 451 W. State St., Boise, noon-1:30 p.m.
- Oct. 13: Milner's Gate, 205 Shoshone St. N., Twin Falls, 5:30-7 p.m.
- Oct. 19: The Yellowstone Restaurant, 230 W. Bonneville St., Pocatello, 5:30-7 p.m.
- Oct. 20: Bonneville County Courthouse Centennial Room, 605 N. Capital Ave., Idaho Falls, noon-1:30 p.m.

Participants will hear from a local member of the Bar active in pro bono work. They will also receive one ethics credit for continuing legal education, pending approval. Please RSVP with your district's Bar president if you plan to attend.

These events are a joint effort of the Idaho Supreme Court, Idaho State Bar and the Idaho Law Foundation.

Idaho has more need for pro bono help than it can currently fill. It's easy to become part of the solution: Use your skills to help others in need.
