Register Now for Pro Bono Week Legal Clinics

Pro Bono Week, Oct. 19-25, highlights the importance of providing volunteer legal services and honors attorneys who choose to do so. Idaho's legal community – including members of its state and federal Pro Bono Commission – will mark the week with a series of clinics providing public service to low-income residents.

Events are organized through the Idaho Volunteer Lawyers Program. Participants generally must be low-income or at-risk individuals. Anyone interested in participating in an event should register in advance on the Idaho State Bar website.

- On Tuesday, Oct. 21, IVLP will hold a statewide phone clinic focused on family law issues.
- On Wednesday, Oct. 22, IVLP will hold a statewide phone clinic focused on employment issues.
- On Thursday, Oct. 23, four events are scheduled:
 - IVLP will hold two statewide phone clinics focused on estate planning and probate issues, and on family law issues.
 - The Idaho State Bar Young Lawyers Section will sponsor a Wills for Heroes legal clinic to help members of the military with end-of-life planning. Please note this event will be held in-person in the Boise area.
 - IVLP will hold a Lawyer in the Library clinic in Meridian for low-income or at-risk people facing a civil legal matter. Again, please note this is an in-person event.
- On Friday, Oct. 24, IVLP will hold an in-person estate planning clinic in the Boise area for low-income people who want help with simple wills, financial power of attorney and advanced care planning documents.

For attorneys considering pro bono service, IVLP will offer a CLE on Monday, Oct. 20, focused on family law basics.

IVLP will hold several other events offering legal services throughout the month of October. Visit the Idaho Law Foundation website for more information.

Questions about the legal clinics should be directed to Jenni Bolen Jordan, jbolen@isb.idaho.gov.
