

Certificate of Attendance

Idaho Supreme Court
2022 Idaho Virtual Statewide Treatment Court Conference
May 5 and 6, 2022

This is to certify that: _____ attended the marked sessions below:

Roles of Team Members      1.5 hours

Speaker: Judge Mary Jane Knisely

Treatment Courts are a multi-disciplinary approach that requires key stakeholders in communities to understand what role they serve on a team, while still maintaining their ethical responsibilities.

Probation is from Mars and Treatment is from Venus      1.5 hours

Speaker: Paul Meigio & Ryan Porter

This seminar will discuss the challenges and conflicts of two entities who have the same outcome but different means in dealing with mutual clientele. Each co-facilitator will explain the vernacular, philosophy and intentions of achieving successful results. Collaboration will be discussed as well as the benefit of understanding the philosophies of all involved.

Conflict Prevention & Management in Treatment Courts      1.5 hours

Speakers: Alex Casale & Heather Kulp

Treatment courts bring together a diverse staff comprised of team members from various professional backgrounds. Differences in opinion within such teams are inevitable and productive. Effective courts seek to prevent harmful conflict and can manage differences to avoid negative impacts on participants and the community.

Program Termination      1.5 hours

Speaker: Helen Harberts, M.A., J.D.

Every team has had incredibly difficult and sometimes dividing conversation about whether to termination a participant. This session will seek to provide examples and solutions.

Emotional Intelligence                      1.5 hours

Speaker: Laura Guilliam, Ph.D. Candidate, Business Benedictine University

As virtual work environments become a permanent component of treatment courts, emotional intelligence (EI) and a sense of belonging will be more important than ever to cultivate. Learning and putting into daily practice the EI skills required to interpret behaviors and emotions and respond accordingly is incredibly challenging in a virtual and hybrid environment. Team members will be challenged to expand those skills and practices to be more self-aware, better at self-management, more socially aware, and effective at relationship management.

Tall Cop Says Stop!                      1.5 hours

Speaker: Jermaine Galloway

Hide in Plain sight- drug trends, concealment, and more!

Trauma Integrated Treatment                      1.5 hours

Speaker: Sonia Fry, clinical director at Preferred Child and Family Services

Treatment Courts have long understood that trauma awareness and trauma integrated approaches are required to be effective with participants. While being aware has been a chief focus, the field needs to implement an integrated approach and allow trauma integrated treatment to become real world practice.

Using Carrots to Make it Stick!                      1 hour

Delivering Incentives and Sanctions in the Court Room for Lasting Change

Speaker: Shannon Carey!

The science of behavior change is complex and knowing how and when to use sanctions, incentives and therapeutic responses effectively can be challenging. This session focuses on court including the skill steps for effective delivery of incentives, sanctions, and therapeutic responses in the court room, developing rapport, adjusting to co-occurring disorders and trauma, fairness, and capitalizing on hope.
