

SUMMARY STATEMENT

State v. Moses, Docket No. 41275

The Supreme Court upheld the conviction of Joshua Michael Moses for grand theft by extortion in this Kootenai County case. The Court determined that the district judge acted appropriately when a juror expressed anxiety during the trial and that Moses' claims of evidentiary errors and prosecutorial misconduct did not provide grounds for a new trial.