

SUMMARY STATEMENT

State v. Dabney, Docket No. 42650-2014

The Idaho Supreme Court affirmed the judgment and orders of the district court. This is an appeal out of Ada County challenging the sentence pronounced for a developmentally disabled Defendant who sexually abused a six-year-old boy, the court's order relinquishing jurisdiction after a period of retained jurisdiction because there was no community-based facility that could provide appropriate treatment for the Defendant and security for the protection of the community; and the court's order denying a motion to reduce the sentence. We affirm.
