

SUMMARY STATEMENT

State v. Schiermeier

Docket No. 45642

The Supreme Court affirmed the Blaine County district court's judgment of conviction for grand theft entered against Chad Schiermeier as well as the resulting sentence of fourteen years with six years fixed. On appeal, Schiermeier argued that the State did not prove the elements of grand theft beyond a reasonable doubt and that the district court abused its discretion by imposing an excessive sentence. The Court held that there was substantial evidence in the record to support Schiermeier's conviction and that the district court's sentence was not excessively harsh.
